Book of Remembrance
Malachi 3:16-17; Psalm 30:4; Acts 10:31

The book of remembrance is a record of every time God’s people speak to each other about their God. He notices every time we think on His name and He jots it in this book.

In this book, every entry is accurate as it is judged against the Word of truth. It is comparable to God’s canon of righteousness. Jehovah sees us as righteous through the blood of Jesus. I guess you could say the Father sees us through blood-stained glasses.

There is a promise to those whose thoughts and words are recorded in this book—they shall be the Lord’s when He makes up his jewels and He will spare them as a man affords favor to his own son who has served him.

Malachi 3:16-17 (KJV)
16Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.
17And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

Acts 10:31 (KJV)
31And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.
